Time for a little fun!

Can you answer these questions about some beloved holiday books?

1. Who tries to stop Christmas from coming by stealing all things Christmas from "the Who's"?
2. What is the first name of Scrooge, the principal character of the novel, A Christmas Carol?
2. How many ghosts are there in A Christmas Carol?
2. Who said this? "One can never have enough socks. Another Christmas has come and gone and I didn't get a single pair. People will insist on giving me books."

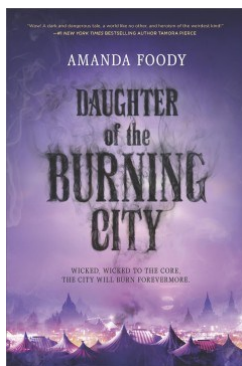

Answers on the back.

December 1st begins Read A New Book Month!

Here are a few new titles the Brookfield Public Library recently added.
Check one out and celebrate the month!

Daughter of the Burning City by Amanda Foody

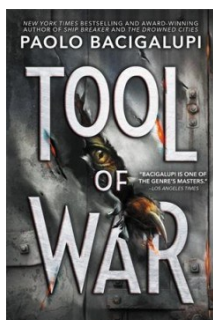

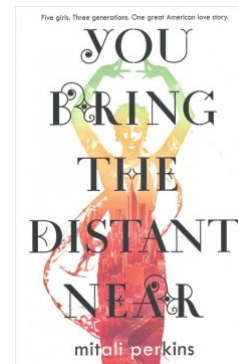

Coming of age within the smoldering borders of the Gomorrah Festival's traveling carnival of fantasy, Sorina uses her rare illusion-creating talents to create family members that she believes do not really exist, until one of them is murdered.

YA FICTION FOODY AMANDA

You Bring the Distant Near by Mitali Perkins

Ranee worries that her children are losing their Indian culture. Sonia is wrapped up in a forbidden biracial love affair. Tara seeks the limelight to hide her true self. Shanti desperately tries to make peace in the family. Anna fights to preserve Bengal tigers and her Bengali identity. As each Das woman decides which Bengali traditions to uphold in America, one hard truth remains: some scars take generations to heal.

YA FICTION PERKINS MITALI

Tool of War by Paolo Bacigalupi

In a future beset with rising seas, corporate government, and constant civil war, a bioengineered half-man/half-beast super-soldier who calls himself Tool breaks his conditioning to overcome his genetically enhanced sense of loyalty to the corporation that created him and seeks revenge against his old masters.

YA FICTION BACIGALUPI PAOLO
