

Department of Parks, Recreation & Forestry

DOUSMAN STAGECOACH INN MUSEUM

1075 Pilgrim Parkway

Classification: Historic - Community

Acreage: 20

The Dousman Stagecoach Inn Museum historic site and park, acquired in 1979, is located in the central portion of the City and also encompasses wetlands within the primary environmental corridor along Dousman Ditch. The Dousman-Dunkel-Behling Inn, a historic structure once located in the northwest quadrant of the intersection of Pilgrim Parkway and Bluemound Road, is located at the site. The Museum and related buildings/facilities on the site are managed and operated by the Elmbrook Historical Society.

Features, Amenities and Activities

- Various Historic Buildings/Structures
- Picnic Tables
- Parking Lot