

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Jerry Zimmerman is stepping down as Scoutmaster of Troop 183 after 17 years of service to the youth of Brookfield. He has mentored 26 Eagle Scouts during his tenure, and is continuing to serve the community as an Assistant Scoutmaster; and

WHEREAS, Jerry has led a contingent of Scouts from our Council to the National Jamboree as Scoutmaster and served as a National Jamboree Staff Member serving youth from around the globe; and

WHEREAS, Jerry continues to train youth in rank advancement, particularly our Star and Life Scouts striving for the Boy Scouts of America's Highest Honor – the rank of Eagle Scout; and

WHEREAS, Jerry has been awarded his Wood Badge Beads and continues to mentor and train new adult leaders in how to lead our Boy Scouts as a Wood Badge Staff Member; and

WHEREAS, Jerry is a recipient of the Potawatomi Area Council District Award of Merit and the Silver Beaver Award and is recognized as a leader in the Scouting Community; and

WHEREAS, Jerry's desire to lead "High Adventure" outings to challenge our youth is unique and exemplary, and his ability to instill a love of the outdoors and the values put forth in the Scout Oath and Laws is outstanding;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Steven V. Ponto, Mayor of the City of Brookfield, Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim Sunday, May 6, 2018, to be in the City of Brookfield, Wisconsin, and thank him for his service with the Boy Scouts of America.

Signed and sealed this 9th day of April, in the year Two Thousand and Eighteen.

Steven V. Ponto, MAYOR
City of Brookfield
