

Trash collection delayed to Saturday in these areas

Trash in these areas were supposed to be collected Friday but will now be collected on Saturday this week. Because of the significant amount of trash uncollected by Waste Management last week, our new contractor GFL has added staff and working 12 hour days to make all collections this week. Some trash will get collected after dark.

