RE: Hiring Procedure for 2020 Seasonal Positions

Thank you for your interest in a seasonal position with the City of Brookfield Parks, Recreation, and Forestry Department. Attached you will find brief descriptions of potential employment opportunities within the Recreation Division and an application form.

Position Availability

Past summer employees are offered the opportunity to return to their positions each year. New openings for applicants are determined based on the number of returning employees.

How To Apply

Complete the attached application and supplemental application and return to the Parks, Recreation & Forestry Department at the address listed above. Applications will be accepted beginning January 2, 2020.

Hiring Timeline

Interviews for recreation summer positions will take place from approximately March 2, 2020 to April 17, 2020. Only the most qualified candidates will be invited to interview. Once the interview process is completed and all positions are filled, all other applicants will be notified in writing of their application status. All applications will be kept on file and considered if additional openings occur throughout the year.

Park Maintenance Positions

Candidates interested in Park Maintenance positions must complete a separate application, which can be obtained from the Human Resources Department. The Human Resource Department will facilitate the hiring process for all Park Maintenance positions.

If you have questions, please contact the Parks, Recreation & Forestry Department at your convenience.
